

Articles of Incorporation of Save All Children International

ARTICLE I, NAME

1.01 Name

The name of this corporation shall be Save All Children International.
The business of the corporation may be conducted as Save All Children Int'l.

ARTICLE II, DURATION

2.01 Duration

The corporation shall exist in perpetuity unless dissolved.

ARTICLE III, PURPOSE

3.01 Purpose

Save All Children Int'l is a non-profit corporation and shall operate exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Our mission is to save children from hunger, poverty, disease, abuse and violence. We are a global child advocacy and empowerment organization that supports grassroots efforts to improve children's health, nutrition, safety, education, and quality of life through collaboration, awareness, and fundraising for children's causes.

To maximize the impact of our efforts, we may seek to collaborate with other non-profit organizations which fall under the 501(c)(3) section of the Internal Revenue Code and are operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes.

3.02 Public Benefit

Save All Children Int'l is designated as a public benefit corporation.

ARTICLE IV, NON-PROFIT NATURE

4.01 Non-profit Nature

Save All Children Int'l is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Save All Children Int'l is not organized and shall not be operated for the private gain of any person. No proceeds of the foundation will enrich any individual, except that reasonable compensation may be paid in exchange for services to the foundation.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by any organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code.

4.02 Personal Liability

No officer or director of this corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of Save All Children Int'l of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property or assets of the officers or directors be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this corporation.

If the corporation is dissolved, any remaining assets will be distributed to another corporation that serves a similar purpose and qualifies as a tax-exempt, charitable organization under the provisions of 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

4.03 Dissolution

Upon termination or dissolution of Save All Children Int'l, any assets lawfully available for distribution shall be distributed to one (1) or more qualifying organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or described in any corresponding provision of any successor statute) which organization or organizations have a charitable purpose which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to the terminating or dissolving corporation.

The organization to receive the assets of Save All Children Int'l hereunder shall be selected by the discretion of a majority of the managing body of the Save All Children Int'l and if its members cannot so agree, then the recipient organization shall be selected pursuant to a verified petition in equity filed in a court of proper jurisdiction against the Save All Children Int'l by one (1) or more of its managing body which verified petition shall contain such statements as reasonably indicate the applicability of this section. The court upon a finding that this section is applicable shall select the qualifying organization or organizations to receive the assets to be distributed, giving preference if practicable to organizations located within the State of Nevada.

In the event that the court shall find that this section is applicable but that there is no qualifying organization known to it which has a charitable purpose, which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to this corporation, then the court shall direct the distribution of its assets lawfully available for distribution to the Treasurer of the State of Nevada to be added to the general fund.

4.03 Prohibited Distributions

No part of the net earnings, or properties of this corporation, on dissolution or otherwise, shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers or other private person or individual, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III, Section 3.01.

4.04 Restricted Activities

No substantial part of the corporation's activities shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene (including the publishing or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

4.05 Prohibited Activities

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (I) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax as an organization described by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (II) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
